

Boredom Busters

Non-screen activities the whole family can enjoy!

Activities for March

- March is Women's History Month. Learn about a notable woman.
- Mar. 2 is Read Across America Day. Have a family read-a-thon.
- Mar. 3 is Wildlife Day. Act out animals in nature.
- Mar. 7 is Cereal Day. Create art with cereal.
- Mar. 12 is Plant a Flower Day. What's your favorite flower?
- Mar. 14 is Pi Day. Today is a day for Pi & Pie. Why?
- Mar. 17 is St. Patrick's Day. Make a green smoothie.
- Mar. 18 is Holi. Paint colorful rocks.
- Mar. 20 is the start of Spring. Go for a walk outside.
- Mar. 21 is Poetry Day. Perform a nursery rhyme.
- Mar. 22 is Water Day. Where do we get our water?
- Mar. 26 is Wear a Hat Day. Make your own hat.
- Mar. 31 is Crayon Day. Make a rainbow crayon.

Dinnertime Discussions

- What is your favorite book and why?
- If you could eat just one food for a whole month, what would it be?
- What are qualities that make you a good friend?
- What is one fun thing you'd like to do?

Books

- Stacey Abrams by Melissa Mwai
- Maryam's Magic by Megan Reid
- Shaped by Her Hands by Anna Freeman
- How to Read a Book by Kwame Alexander
- The Perfect Seat by Minh Le
- Whose House is That? by Stan Tekiela
- Bear Came Along by Richard Morris
- Cone Cat by Sarah Howden
- Awesome Edible Kids Crafts by Arena Blake
- Planting a Rainbow by Lois Ehlert
- Flowers by Gail Gibbons
- Fair and Square by Heather Burnell
- Pie in the Sky by Lois Ehlert
- The Great Leprechaun Chase by James Dean
- St. Patrick's Day by Charly Haley
- Crayola Holi Colors by Robin Nelson
- Festival of Colors by Kabir Sehgal
- Goodbye Winter, Hello Spring by Kenard Pak
- Green on Green by Dianne White
- What are Little Girls Made Of? by Jeanne Willis
- Bright Brown Baby by Andrea Pinkney
- The Water Princess by Susan Verde
- We Are Water Protectors by Carole Lindstrom
- Hooray for Hat! by Brian Won
- I Had Ten Hats by David McPhail
- Harold and the Purple Crayon by Crockett Johnson
- The Crayon Man by Natascha Biebow